THE BREVITY BASKET.

Filled With Brief Mention of Many Minor Events of Yesterday.

Citizens living in the northern part of the city are complaining of the scarcity of water.

A pleasant dinner was given Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. L. Z. Leiter to the Illinois senators and members.

The officers of the night lodging house have asked that $100 a month be given them during January, February, and March.

The steam heating apparatus in the Garnet school building, which was damaged during the recent cold snap, is being repaired.

The commissioners have sent to the house of representatives district committee the license and police bills, with slight modifications.

Chaplain Kramer held a religious meeting in the library room of the navy yard yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, assisted by Mrs. Russell.

Lieut. Austin, of the fifth precinct, was summoned home, to Fairfax, Va., Saturday evening by a telegram announcing the illness of his wife.

During the twenty-four hours ending at 8 o'clock yesterday morning there were thirty-six arrests made by the police, most of which were for minor offenses.

The commissioners will not construct a sewer in the alley in the rear of A street, between Second and Third streets southeast, as the alley is too narrow.

The Alpha club have elected for the ensuing year: T. O. Hills, president; R. H. Barry, vice president; Bart Hills, secretary; Howard Roteler, treasurer, and B. H. Sims, assistant treasurer.

The case against N. W. and S. C. Fitzgerald, for pension frauds, was called up in the criminal court on Saturday on a motion to quash. After some discussion, the case was set for next Saturday.

The District Tent of Rechabites has offered a handsome gold watch, valued at $125, to be voted for by the different tents in this city, and Mr. J. W. Robertson has been entered by Capitol Tent, of Capitol Hill.

Mrs. E. M. Shaw, of No. 1133 Twelfth street northwest, fell on the ice at the corner of Massachusetts avenue and Eleventh street on Saturday, and broke her arm. The fractured limb was set by Dr. Crook.

Among the guests at Commissioner Loring's Saturday evening reception were Gen. Sherman, Gen. and Mrs. Sheridan, Lord and Lady Bury, Baron and Baroness de Fava, Count and Countess Levenhaupt, Mar. Capel, Rev. Dr. A. P. Putnam of Brooklyn, N. Y., Judge Bancroft Davis and Mrs. Davis, and ex-Secretary Boutwell.

The grand jury returned true bills on Saturday against William S. Whiteford, forgery; Mary Thomas, larceny; Joseph Hawkins, mayhem; William Sweeney and John Herrierty, robbery; Frank A. Blackford, assault with intent to kill; Isaiah Johnson, housebreaking at night; William F. Winslow, bigamy; Joseph McCanley, violating postal law; William S. Whiteford, passing forged check.

At the regular monthly meeting of Farragut council, No. 6, Royal Arcanum, the following officers were duly elected for the ensuing year: Regent, Commander William Bainbridge Hoff; vice regent, Lieut. Emory H. Taunt; secretary, Passed Assistant Pyramter A. K. Michler; orator, Passed Assistant Engineer J. D. Ford; treasurer, Chief Engineer John W. Moore; guide, Assistant Engineer I. N. K. Reeves; warden, William Bonville; secretary, Pay Clerk John G. Meyers; collector, Lieut. Reginald Nicholson; past regent, Chief Engineer A. Henderson.

Mrs. C. Donovan, of 315 Fifth avenue, New York, will open at parlors of the Arlington hotel on Monday, Jan. 14. An elegant assortment of dinner and ball dresses, wraps, and millinery imported especially for the occasion. Mrs. Donovan will remain three days to take orders.

A Thieving Domestic.

Julia Tasco, a colored woman, aged 19 years, was arrested on Saturday night. She was a domestic in the family of Sarah A. Wayne at 1514 U street northwest, and was arrested on the charge of grand larceny.

The officers recovered three silver goblets, $10 in money, and a lot of dry goods that had been purchased with the stolen money. The prisoner is locked up in the second precinct for a hearing in the police court this morning.

Why is the Orator sold so extensively and always demanded by noted men? Because it's pure. For sale by grocers and restaurants.

Gen. McKenzie.

Gen. McKenzie's condition has been reported to the war department as improved. His restoration to a command is, however, considered an impossibility, and a vacancy will soon occur in the grade of brigadier general.

Gen. Wesley Merritt, superintendent of the West Point academy, and Col. D. S. Stanley, Twenty-second infantry, are the officers most prominently mentioned as likely to receive the promotion.

It's a mistake, Col. Moore's champions don't us it (the Orator).

The Case of Coomes.

A. H. Jackson appeared in the criminal court on Saturday and asked that a day be set for the trial of ex-Detective Coomes, saying that he insisted that the time be set. The court intimated that he had better go to the department of justice.

Not the Corner of Eighth and E.

The restaurant raided by the police Friday night was not that of Mr. Mankin, corner of Eighth and E streets northwest. In suppressing the rumor and other facts, the reporter gave the reporter the wrong location of the raided establishment.

The Check Raisers.

The two young men who attempted to get $500 on a raised check signed by Justice Bradley are said to be ex-pages of the house of representatives named McCredy and Adamson. Adamson, it is said, has confessed.

A TRUE assistant to nature in restoring the system to perfect health, thus enabling it to resist disease, is Brown's Iron Bitters.
